ENCOURAGE A CHRISTIAN PRISONER THIS CHRISTMAS

When you are writing Christmas cards this year, please consider sending a card to a Christian prisoner of faith in Pakistan, China or the Middle East region. PLEASE NOTE: We cannot guarantee that your card will reach the prisoner, but even if it doesn't there is still great value in sending one as it will make clear that the prisoner is known and cared about overseas.

Asif Pervaiz has been in prison in Pakistan since 2013, when he was accused of blasphemy. He is waiting for an appeal to be heard against the death sentence imposed in September 2020.

Pastor Wang Xiaoguang of Linfen Golden Lampstand Church and his wife Pastor Yang Rongli have been in prison since August 2021 on false charges of fraud. He is serving a sentence of nine years and seven months.

Middle East Christian prisoner For security reasons, we cannot give details of name, address or country but can assure you that we can arrange for your card to reach a Christian prisoner or their family in the region.

What do I need to remember when writing my card?
Keep to a simple Christmas greeting as the content of your card will have to be translated.
DON'T make any criticism of the government
DON'T mention Church in Chains
DON'T refer to their arrest or sentence
DON'T include your address

When is the latest date for posting for Christmas?
Monday 7 December is the official date but please do post your card any time before Christmas.
